IPLOCKS Launches Channel Program in EMEA

Distribution Agreement with Getech Ltd. Creates New Opportunities for European Sales Growth

London, U.K. – April 24, 2007– IPLOCKS™, a leading provider of database security and compliance software, (www.iplocks.com), announced today at Infosecurity Europe 2007 a channel program for EMEA countries. The program has been launched in the U.K. through an agreement with Getech Ltd. which allows the company to sell and service IPLOCKS software. Getech offers security software consulting, managed service provisioning and systems integration.

“The opportunity to distribute IPLOCKS software in Europe follows our strategy of achieving high levels of IT sales growth by partnering with providers of innovative technology,” said Tina Blockley, CEO, Getech. “The data security and compliance software offered by IPLOCKS perfectly compliments our focus on security solutions.”

While initially focusing on increased market penetration in the U.K., IPLOCKS plans to expand into other European markets while pursuing opportunities in the Middle East. IPLOCKS is targeting key vertical markets including financial, insurance and pharmaceutical organizations.

“Getech has a great sales and service reputation which leverages the type of high value sales that IPLOCKS can generate,” said David Mills, Vice President, Sales, IPLOCKS.
